A PTSA Sponsored
Wilcox and Santa Clara High School Parent Education Night

Join us for an evening with

Ann Solorio Brownell

Cyber Bullying Educational Event – for Parents and Students. Take a Stand!

Ann Brownell will discuss the serious issue of bullying and cyber bullying; and the effects that negative posts on Facebook, MySpace, and AIM, and thousands of text messages can have on individuals. Topics will include: what are the forms of cyber bullying? What are the warning signs that cyber bullying is taking place? What can students do if they are aware that a friend or class mate is being bullied? How can we all take a stand against this form of aggression against our kids and teens? Ann will share her family’s story with the goal that others who are being bullied will speak up and take a stand.

7:00 pm on Wednesday, December 14, 2010
Mission City Center for the Performing Arts
(Adjacent to Wilcox High School
3250 Monroe St., Santa Clara, CA 95051)

 This is a free event, and everyone is invited **

Refreshments will be served.

Parent involvement promotes student success!

Ann Solorio Brownell is the Mother and Founder of The Amanda Network, Anti-Bullying Campaign.